Robert Lewis Wilson, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Though born into a Christian family, Ramsey Carter Jackson grows up feeling more pain and fear than love. Sexually abused by a neighbor and often beaten by his angry, drunken father, Ramsey has little reason to believe that he deserves God's love-or that God would even give it to him. So, despite knowing deep in his heart the right way to live, Ramsey sets off on a path of willful debauchery, choosing to drown his pain in liquor and look for love in between the sheets. Although he wanders far from the fold, Ramsey can never shake the feeling that he needs the grace and forgiveness of God. And as his search takes him from Texas to Costa Rica to the Dominican Republic, he begins to realize that maybe he needs to stop searching and start receiving. An honest and sometimes graphic portrayal of the ways we attempt to bandage our own wounds and assert lordship over our own lives, The Long Road to Grace opens each chapter with scripture and demonstrates how willing God is to meet us with forgiveness and love in the darkest and most desperate corners of our lives when we earnestly seek him.
