The Circle of Sodom: A Gripping New Thriller

By Pat Mullan

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 356 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.8in. An even mix of Crichton and Clancy and written equally as well. It's a classic page-turner. You know you're reading a good thriller when you start to cast it for the movie before you've even finished. Eithne Hannigan, BOOK REVIEWS, CONNEMARA LIFE magazine. You know you're reading a good thriller when you start to cast it for the movie before you've even finished. The plot is as complex as a Grisham novel, with twists and turns that kept me reading all night. It deals with corruption in high places and sinister secret societies and collusion between those who want more power. The characters are exceptionally well drawn and the dialogue fairly whips along. With the action moving from the elegant rooms of the White House to shootings in New York bars, car chases and mysterious cult rituals, the story catapults the reader around the United States with confidence. As the plot thickens - as they say! - paranoia battles with genuine anxiety about the U. S. government under threat from those who have a blackmailing agenda. All the ingredients for a good thriller are here. Owen MacDara...
