Joy, heartbreak, compassion, understanding and undying love are common threads throughout all of our lives. Through these poems you can embrace the pain or joy that you have felt when you were involved in similar scenes, in the past or perhaps at present. We all live through many experiences at the hands of love and this collection of beautiful words, creative phrases and analogies will help us all to feel less alone in our world and more understood. It hopes to achieve a united understanding between all of human-kind as she writes about the feelings that we all endure daily.
