At first. we are all according to their own understanding. drawing on political science or economics knowledge to use it. and now has reached a basic consensus that university governance is outside the power structure within the University and its run. the core of the university organization the allocation of decision-making authority. The current leadership structure of our public universities is the president responsibility system under the leadership of party committees. as the important interests of the University teachers and groups of students in university decision-making is difficult to reflect in this presentation. The concept of leadership structure may obscure the allocation of reasonable thinking university powers....
