E-PS Moving on from Bronze Age Ideas I regard Philosophy as a formulation of the nature of things ; a putting together of all featuring data in a way that makes coherent, true-to-life sense. This is what the ancients tried to do but they formulated a Father Supernatural, and at war with Mother Nature! Their dual system (dualism) was not satisfyingly coherent and true to life so the Western philosophy profession gave 2,400 years trying to make it coherent, thereby digging an ever deeper hole, in which much of the world still resides. Western Philosophy and some Eastern Philosophy, for millennia, focused on finding- -defining categorical (unconditional) knowledge, truth, reality, the good, etc. - informed by their primal intellect (intellect of the primal senses: sight, sound, etc.). Writers were programmed with premises of categorical form and by their predecessors who edited out early philosophers recognition that premises are a determinant of concepts and system. Their work was analogous to Flat Earthers debating whether the Sun, having crossed the sky by day, returned at night in a sun-boat or whether a new Sun was born each day. They were trapped in a conceptual framework. They continued over the centuries to endorse and promote their incoherence, pretty much as truth, fact, reality, and they liked to regard themselves as the intellectual cream of society. Perhaps they were! In the analogy of the Flat Earthers, Copernicus eventually came along and produced a new system, the Helio-Centric Cosmology. This eventually put an end to debate about a sun-boat versus a new sun each day. There simply was no contest, for those who brought their higher intellect to bear on the issue. Of course, invention of...
