Summary - Beautiful and independently wealthy, her towering social position assured, Margaret Anthony could have brought a yacht or a place with the stroke of her pen. But to her free-spirited business partner, Chip Thorn, she was little more than a spoiled brat. Ironically, they're forced to pretend an engagement in public, while in private they're still worlds apart. In the rugged and often dangerous world of Chip's logging camp, Margaret slowly yields to his way of life and the ecstasy she's dreamed of since he first evoked her greater wealth of passion with his soul-spinning kisses.
