

The World Guide: 11th Edition

By -

New Internationalist. 1 Paperback(s), 2007. soft. Book Condition: New. Completely revised and updated, this 11th edition of The World Guide is a catalogue profiling every country on the planet, combining social and developmental analysis with historical and political content. It distills data from the United Nations and other mainstream sources to provide facts, history, and political and economic analysis, as well as information on child health, literacy, maternal mortality, and land use. Produced by the New Internationalist in collaboration with the Third World Institute in Uruguay, the book includes two-color maps of every country, a fold-out color map of the world with a gallery of national flags, and an extensive introductory section covering 25 global topics."The layout is user-friendly, the text is clear and clean, and most important of all can quote the statistics with confidence. The book is now an indispensable tool for our work."Oxfam (United Kingdom) 623.
