Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Home and Its Pleasures: Simple Stories for Young People The little girls who attended Mrs. Page's school in the village had just been dismissed with the agreeable promise that, in consequence of their good behaviour and progress during the last two months, this day week should be a holiday. They dispersed in different directions homeward in high spirits at the thought, and full of plans as to the pleasantest way of spending it. There was one among them, a girl of about twelve, who, as she went on, was surrounded by a knot of the youngest children in the school; one clung to her frock, two had hold of her hands, and three or four capered round and round her, all asking questions at once.
