

Mexican Poetry (Paperback)

By -

Grove Press / Atlantic Monthly Press, United States, 1994. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book. The renowned Mexican poet and critic Octavio Paz assembled this important anthology--the first of its kind in English translation--with a keen sense of what is both representative and universal in Mexican poetry. His informative introduction places the thirty-five selected poets within a literary and historical context that spans four centuries (1521-1910). This accomplished translation is the work of the young Samuel Beckett, just out of Trinity College, who had been awarded a grant by UNESCO to collaborate with Paz on the project. Notable among the writers who appear in this anthology are Bernardo de Balbuena (1561-1627), a master of the baroque period who celebrated the exuberant atmosphere and wealth of the New World; Juan Ruiz de Alarcon (1581?-1639), who became one of Spain's great playwrights; and Sor Juana Ines de la Cruz (1651-1695), the beautiful nun whose passionate lyric poetry, written within her convent's walls, has made her, three hundred years later, a proto-feminist literary heroine. This is a major collection of Mexican poetry from its beginnings until the modern period, compiled and translated by two giants of world...

Reviews

This book is definitely worth acquiring. I have gone through it and so I am certain that I will likely read through it again in the future. It's been printed in an exceptionally basic way, but in fact it is only after I finished reading this publication that I actually altered my opinion, changing the way in my opinion.
