Due to be closed for the next six months, over 600 inmates have passed through its doors. A very normal detention centre from the outside, this one houses the man who longs to be the biggest criminal mastermind in history; the warden. Having spent four years planning the biggest robbery of all time, he plans to walk away with 6.7 billion dollars. In the detention centre it is the guards duty to teach the inmates their role in the robbery and what to do when the money s been obtained. As the plan is revealed to the inmates one girl catches the warden s interest and over the next six months she questions everything that the warden has been planning. Using the centre s outreach program as a smokescreen for their operation, everyone must play their part so there will be no looking over their shoulder when it s over. The FBI are at a complete loss as they find themselves up against a formidable opponent that they never anticipated. He plays with their sanity and he s about to pull off the biggest steal in New York, he is The Mastermind. In Steal Big: New York Sean O Driscoll has created a fast-paced thriller that will have readers gripped as they follow the creative and criminal endeavours of The Mastermind. Inspired by the works of bestselling author Dan Brown, this book will be enjoyed by fans of crime fiction, including fans of writers such as James Patterson, John Grisham and Lee Child.
