Weefster Publishing, Ireland, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When Floss McFarland ditches her secure and lucrative actuarial job to set up Cut the Blue Investigations, her friends and family think she's lost the plot. And two years into a less than glamorous career chasing corporate fraudsters, cheating husbands and wayward pets, she's starting to see their point. But Floss is determined to turn CTB's luck around and things are finally starting to look up . An old insider trading job, lost a year ago, suddenly resurfaces. And like Dublin buses, good gigs come in twos and a second more challenging job falls in her lap. A young Russian girl approaches with a desperate plea to find her best friend Anna, missing, feared kidnapped or worse in Dublin. Fired up and determined not to fail, Floss and loyal sidekick Penny Firth soon uncover a sinister human trafficking ring at the heart of the city's underbelly. More ruthless and vicious than any white-collar weasel they've faced, the girls reluctantly bring in the reinforcements . From stage left, the mysterious Tash, Lithuania's answer to Lara Croft. And stage right? Seasoned and sizzling Milo McCarthy, ex-special branch, turned Private Eye. Floss needs a mind-melting love triangle like she needs a full bodied perm, but that's exactly what she's got. Will she pick Tash and dabble in the dark side ? Or will she fall for Milo's bad-boy charm? But most important of all, will she find Anna before it's too late? Praise for Cut The Blue This first novel by Aoife Sheridan is guaranteed to have you laughing out loud. With fun filled suspense and a sassy spirit, the page turning is guaranteed to take...
