

Song and Silence: English / Persian (Paperback)

By Ali Khiabani

Supreme Art, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .People with different languages, races, beliefs, customs, occupations, and educations were killed in Nice because they were accused of holding a celebration, being happy and full of hope. The mentioned differences gathered together only for celebration and being happy. No one asked the other about his/her religion or, even, his/her motivation to be there. Pleasure and energy connects the people and makes it easy and, even, more beautiful to be together. Is there anything more lovely than smile, excite and emotion in the world? So why do some people- I emphasize people - know happy as a crime, a crime for which they should be killed? I do not know how the God and the religion emphasizing on human equality ignore such intellectual vacuum in its theoretical principles such that some people abuse of it and commit a crime. In history, human happiness and cheerfulness were repeatedly infringed and were criticized and threatened by different religions. Why is it not possible to be a Muslim and live happily? Why is it not possible to respect others happiness and not condemn the songs...
