Xulon Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 272 x 211 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.My name is Liesa Marie Williams; I have been married to my amazing Husband Derek for 24 years. I am a Mom, daughter, sister, to name a few of my roles and I am thankful for each and every one of these roles that God has blessed me with. In writing Seeking the Just Right Relationship I have learned to be better and you will be better as well. As individuals, from the Newlyweds to the seasoned Married couple, you will enter or have entered your marriage/relationship from two totally different environments. Some of your morals and values may be the same, but how you interpret other standards of living may not be. As a result your views; like raising children or maybe you don t want any children, how will the bills be paid, buy a house or rent, stay at home or working Mom and how you resolve conflict may all be handled very differently. So here you are, two different personalities with two sets of views now expected to live as one and to handle life s situations as such. Seeking the Just Right Relationship is a questionnaire workbook that is a guide to help you work through your process of life situations and through this process you will understand your spouse better and yourself as well. Seeking the Just Right Relationship is not only for the married couple, it is also for individuals seeking to know more about themselves and what they are looking for in a committed relationship. I hope to inspire couples and individuals through their journey; whether they want to better understand themselves before or during their marriage or to...
