

Argyle Crew: Adventures in the Land of Skcos

By Benjamin Gerber

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Khairul Hisham (illustrator). 272 x 211 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It s a collaborative storytelling adventure for kids. It s a great pick up game for adults. The land of Skcos is inhabited by all manner of things, but primarily its inhabitants belong to a race of ever changing, always interesting creatures called Soppets. Soppets are a magical breed of intelligent, funny, thrill seeking socks. Yes, you read that correctly, Socks. Argyle Crew is a free wheeling system powered by imagination. Rather than a character sheet like a traditional RPG, your character and it s attributes are all based on a sock puppet, or in Skcos lingo, a Soppet. Each Soppet has several unique qualities which allow it to do extraordinary things! Argyle Crew is great game for children as young as 4 years old. Short scenarios and active participation keep things lively! Useful as a learning tool not just for gaming, but for life lessons, Argyle Crew can easily be used in a classroom setting. Professionals working on counseling children can find this game equally useful for indirectly or directly exploring past experiences and...
