Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from History of Fairfield County, South Carolina In this work, of any mention being made of persons fully entitled to a record in history. The author will take pleasure in yet giving them a place in an appendix to the little work. But for urgent solicitations from friends I should not have undertaken this book at my advanced stage of life, and hope the readers of it will pardon any errors or omissions. The friends to the work have been very kind in furnishing material for it. I will here state that during my illness I was greatly indebted to a young friend, a descendant of two prominent families spoken of in this work, for the interest manifested in copying my reminiscences, and letters from correspondents, relative to my book. Then I remember all The friends, so linked together, I ve seen around me fall Like leaves in wintry weather; I feel like one Who treads alone Some banquet hall deserted, When lights are fled, Whose garlands dead, And all but me departed; I shall begin...
