

Angel Bluff (Paperback)

By Diana Buehl

E-Booktime, LLC, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . April Herald just got her life back on track when she was drugged and woke up in a pickup camper. That night, she is brutally raped, slashed, and left to die by her abductor. Seriously injured, she makes it through the night, and in the morning, seeks help at a nearby farm before losing consciousness. The first of a growing list of suspects is real estate agent Steven Moore. He was the first responder to the scene on Angel Bluff. April s murder still haunts him when he spends a night in a house that is haunted by a small boy named Sonny. Steven finds a family to fill the house that was vacant for sixteen years. The house becomes a home and the heart of the mystery. Fifteen-year-old Heather is snatched from the house and found dead in the exact spot where April was left to die. Sonny would help if he could communicate with the living; and the police don t see a correlation between the cases. Therefore, justice will have to come about another way before there is...
