

The Girl from Arizona (Paperback)

By Nina Rhoades

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Girl from Arizona transports us to the world of Marjorie Graham, a young lady brought up in rural Arizona amid the Old West culture, and sent to live in a city. This heartwarming classic by Nina Rhoades emphasizes the virtue of family values and togetherness at a time when the world is beginning to rapidly change. At the dawn of the 20th century things such as electricity and automobiles are appearing, as the culture of the Old West departs and the world embraces modernity. Amidst this atmosphere of change, Marjorie Graham is growing up. Close to her parents and aunts, the family live in rural Arizona and manage a cattle ranch, until it is decided that Marjorie will go to stay with her Aunt Julia - who had long departed the country to live in the urbanized and modern locale of Albany, New York. On arriving, Marjorie finds it difficult to adapt to the culture of city life. Her cousin Elsie, who is of a similar age, is fashion conscious and has a modern outlook. She is taken aback at...
