Are You Ready for a Capital Campaign Assessing Your Organizations Ability to Run a Major Fundraising Campaign is a practical workbook that does what many organizations pay thousands of dollars to have a consultant do for them. If you are considering a capital campaign, it is wise to engage fundraising counsel to formally assess your organizations readiness and the communitys readiness for your campaign. But this book takes you through the first steps of the assessment, and often you can correct many of your shortcomings before engaging a consultant to help you get ready for a campaign, saving you time and money. This workbook will help you assess: Whether you have a donor prospect pool for major campaign gifts. Whether you have planned adequately for the campaign. Whether your board is willing to step up to support the campaign. Whether your staff has sufficient time to devote to the campaign. Whether you have the right policies and procedures in place. Whether your community is ready for the campaign. How well your software system can manage a campaign. Perhaps your board and executive staff think youre ready to launch a campaign, but you suspect otherwise. This book provides exercises you can do as a group to help you get ready for what will, most likely, be the biggest fundraising effort your organization has done up to this point. Are You Ready for a Capital Campaign can help you raise the sights of your entire organization to raise more money than you ever dreamed possible. You will learn what the key ingredients of a successful campaign are and how to make sure your organization has these ingredients in its toolbox before you launch a campaign that could fail...
