THE PARISH: AN AMERICORPS STORY (PAPERBACK)

Beating Windward Press LLC, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Ryan Winet (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Leo joined AmeriCorps to do something important with his life. When his team is sent to rebuild St. Bernard Parish after Hurricane Katrina, he believes he ll finally make a difference in the world. But while other teams do the real work of gutting and rebuilding houses, Leo is assigned to the camp newsletter. His friends Snave, Cirelle, and Davy have Equally unglamorous minor jobs in the kitchen and supply rooms. Only Kiley, the girl Leo pines after, spends her days saving da parish from ruin. Frustrated, Leo and his friends chafe against authority and each other in a town longing for renewal. They re all looking for something. Or running from something. Often, both. Inspired by the author s own experience in the aftermath of Katrina, The Parish is a graphic novel about growing up and the tug-of-war between selfishness and service. In keeping with that spirit, Beating Windward Press donates $1 from each copy sold to the New Orleans Area Habitat for Humanity.
