Green Ivy, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In Westport, Virginia, the students at James Madison High School have truly experienced a rude awakening. Students are beginning to realize that the Son of God is not just a figurative person they read about in Sunday school, but a real, live, breathing person that eats, sleeps, goes to basketball practice, deals with peer pressure, has homework, and needs to find a date to the prom. As more students in Westport realize Immanuel's identity, they wonder why he came to James Madison High in the first place. Being friends with Immanuel is a life-changing experience, but students begin to realize that he's the best friend that they would ever have. The power of the Son of God does not change, but he ministers to his friends in real ways that lead them to be better people and help others. Just like Immanuel had to deal with the evil of the world when he first came here, he's on a new mission to save the future of Christianity.
