With the ink still wet on his MBA, Chris Rinaldi has only two goals-make bags of cash and bag lots of women. Dancing on the edge of insider trading, he pushes his company to buy stock in a pharmaceutical firm because of its promising new autism drug. As Gina s understanding of the world blossoms, she forms a connection with the Wall Street hustler, who appreciates her-quirks and all. And for the first time since his sister s death, Chris experiences true emotions with a woman who has recently discovered passion herself. Gina believes the pills are responsible for her awakening. Chris knows they re responsible for his success. And when the drug is discontinued, the cost of normal might bankrupt their future. Characters are charming and the story is so original and fresh.
