Many times In life we go through a storm, have lost a loved one, lost a job, became homeless, went through a divorce and felt as though love had failed. We feel as though God has forgotten us, because we are going through turbulent times or hardship but God said I will never leave you nor forsake you. When you are done reading this book, I pray you will know that God has Not forgotten you. About the Author. Demetria Buie is a 31 year old single mother of one. She grew up in a small town called Rayville Louisiana. At the age of 18, Demetria moved to Richmond Virginia to better her life. Demetria experiences lifes hardships, from being homeless, unforgiving, depressed, suicidal, and a dysfunctional family. Miss Buie was a Jr. high school drop-out; but this didnt stop her. She never gave up. Demetria kept pushing on. When she was 23 she recieved her GED and attended John Tyler Community College for acting. This was accomplished in the midst of hurt caused by fake family and friends; as a result she was forced to live in a group home. It was these trying circumstances that fueled her passion to write her first book, Refuse To Lose. In 2014 her autobiography would be the first book she self-published. She shares her journey with the world of how God held her hand and brought her through her dark storms. Demetria is a life coach and also teaches praise dancing to young girls. As an independent author she has 4 books under her belt. Shes currently working on her newest project, her Christian novel titled The Wind That Never Blew Her...
