Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Latter Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 73: December 28, 1911 A commendable and always attractive feature of the Church is its missionary system, which is perfectly organized and carried on with a vigor and intensity of purpose that has won the admiration even of our bitterest Opponents. To maintain the twenty-one missions, with two thousand missionaries constantly in the field, costs the Church over annually. To this amount should be added the sum paid, on a conservative estimate, by the elders themselves for their keep in the mission field, making a total annual expenditure of to carry the gospel message to the nations of the earth. This great sacrifice of means is not only willingly made, but the missionaries freely give their time and services for two years and upwards to the arduous duty of preaching the word, being separated in the meanwhile from their loved ones at home - from parents, relatives and friends. If they can but reach honest souls - searchers after truth - these humble servants of the Master are undaunted by hardships, or weariness, or bodily inconvenience, or by the spirit of persecution. They pursue the even tenor of their way and look to the Lord for ultimate success. Success attends them. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
