Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Finding inspiration, growth, and love after divorce isn t status in quo. This book is an excellent divorce resource for enhancing your knowledge about surviving change and rebuilding your life with your children. Based, in part, on my successes rebuilding my life, and inspired by experiences raising my children while coping with challenges from their mother. When I learned my kids were struggling with verbal and emotional abuse and their mom s bad personal choices and addiction, I went to court and brought my kids home full-time. I want to express more than a mere Thank you, because it is going to change my life. It is an answer to my prayers on so many levels. It has the, I am not alone with a twist of new perspective in it. I love the way you write!!! I am excited to utilize what I am reading. There were a few times I cried and even stopped to truly absorb your words. -- Facebook member of Single Dads Column This series of twelve steps contained here are expressed in...
