By Rajendra Kher

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Chinese find some ancient archaeological artifacts and ancient manuscripts in a temple in Tibet. The manuscript talks about the existence of a particular secret object, which can help one rule the world! The ambitions of the Chinese rulers take wings with this treasure of information. Coincidentally they also come to know of the exact location of the object. and the deadly chase begins! This thrilling chase ends at Bindu Lake! Till reaching the Bindu Lake the pilgrims get many mysterious, enigmatic experiences. For example, they have to cross three gates on three different planes. Crossing each gate leads them into a different kind of land. These lands are spectacular in their imagery. Surviving the chase and conquering many obstacles and many dangers along the way the hero of the novel, Vikram Bhargav, manages to reach the Bindu Lake and places the object there. That object is supposed to get neutralized after reaching Bindu Lake! The story begins with a journey from speedy miserable materialistic life and ends at a very peaceful place. Readers will experience the universal truth...
