

Reverend Mother s Daughter: A Real Life Story (Paperback)

By Mary Haskett

Believe Books, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Reverend Mother s Daughter is the extraordinary real life story of author Mary Haskett. In her rivetting account, the author experiences racial rejection, abuse and the terrors of war but is lovingly adopted by a compassionate Reverend Mother. Starting in England in 1934, Mary takes the reader on a dramatic journey--from the time of her rejection by her birth family and her adoption by her benefactor (the Mother Superior of a nunnery) through years of struggle, abuse and confusion to the joyful life that she lives today. Mary skillfully writes of her experiences and of the people who were part of her life--those who were very dear to her and those caregivers who abused their authority when she was separated from Reverend Mother by the war, of her many childhood experiences away from her care, the reunion with her at age fourteen and the gradual emergence into adulthood. She tells how she followed Reverend Mother s wishes, reluctantly pursuing a career in nursing, despite her desire to escape the real world through a life in show business. She introduces the reader to Mario, her first love,...
