Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Prospectus of the National Convention, League of Republican Clubs, Cleveland, June 19, 20, 21, 1895: Compiled for Use of Delegates, and Containing a History of the Convention City, Illustrations of Principal Points of Interest, and Information of Use to Sight-Seers To Republican State Leagues, League Clubs and all Republicans: In compliance with a provision of the constitution of the Republican National League establishing an annual convention, and in accordance with the instructions of the last National Convention at Denver, the Eighth Annual Convention of the Republican National League of the United States is hereby called to meet in the city of Cleveland, Wednesday, June 19, 1895, a 10 A. M., and continue its sessions until its business is completed. The ratio of representation will be six delegates-at-large from each State and Territory, four from each congressional district, and one delegate from each College Club, represented by one of its own members in the Annual Convention of the American Republican College League for 1895. The following are ex officio delegates, viz: the President, Secretary and Treasurer of the National League; one Vice-President and one Executive member of the National organization from each State and Territory, and the President and Secretary of each State and Territorial League, making four ex officio delegates from each. This gives each State practically ten delegates-at-large in addition to the four from each congressional district. The total representation will exceed two thousand delegates, with an equal number of alternates. The business of the meeting will include reports from the officers of the League, the election of officers, vice-presidents and members of the executive committee for the ensuing year; the designation or reference...
