Of Cowards and Firefighters (Paperback)

By Barry Roberts Greer

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The blog was started back in 2008 to record my fire service experiences. Since then the Great Recession financially clobbered one fire department after another, and the IAFF and other public service unions remain under assault from the ideological right who are using the Recession as cover to bust unions. So the mission of shifted from personal experience, although that appears a couple of times, to observation of political cowards who now wish to villify those they praised following 9/11. In short, local governments have attacked public service workers for simple budget expediency. Rather than admit that cutting public safety budgets would reduce public safety, the politicians again and again tried to argue that they could save a buck without losing a life. shredded that Orwellain logic used again and again from Philly to LA and finally in the fire district where Greer himself served. Almost all the 2013 section entries concern the battle to stop destructive leadership in the Poquonnock Bridge Fire District, the largest and busiest in Groton, Connecticut. The battle is not over, but as of this publication,...
