

Notes from (Over) the Edge: Unmasking the Truth to End Your Suffering (Paperback)

By Jim Palmer

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Notes from (Over) the Edge began as scribbling on paper in a black spiral notebook. Since 2005, critically acclaimed author, Jim Palmer, has been chronicling his spiritual journey out of organized religion, in search of a deeper spirituality and lasting happiness. After two near-death experiences, Palmer set his resolve to address the root cause of his own personal suffering, and to know true peace and freedom, which he had failed to find through religion. He recorded personal notes about his spiritual awakening is the basis for Notes from (over) the Edge. An excerpt from the book, 15 Things Jesus Didn't Say, went viral, and is indicative of Palmer's writing, which reveals an inclusive spiritual message of Jesus for all humankind. As one reader put it, Jim leads us out of your own self-imposed prison cells into the joy, freedom, and peace that religious rhetoric promised but fails to deliver. Notes from (over) the Edge is divided into five main parts. Part One is a conversation with the reader about how to approach the pursuit of truth. Part Two is a...
