

Rich Thirsty Hungry: And the Freedom That Finds Us There (Paperback)

By Jamie Lisea

Jamie Lisea, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What if Jesus were walking in your city, meeting someone for coffee, working on his computer, coaching your kids soccer team, or surfing with friends and then having a bonfire with drinks and burgers? Do you wonder how his conversations with people would sound . . . today? Would they be different? What would you think of him if you bumped into him on the street? Have you ever wondered that? What if you could experience the same moments that Jesus had with people . . . today? This book shares one story Jesus told and two encounters Jesus had with people, but they are written in modern day life and language. The current settings and characters bring the meaningful exchanges between him and others into a surprising and relevant light. As you engage with the stories, you ll find that his words of love and freedom are as powerful today as they were originally intended to be at the beginning of the first century. Maybe we can experience these same moments . . . today.
