Excerpt: . . . give them once a year Christmas turkeys and cheap candy to eat. Children who were so fortunate as to be born into the world without parents (except such as an ashbarrel and a policeman provide), or who were successful in getting rid of what parents they had through the agency of the criminal court, or through divine intervention, were collected in orphan asylums by the old fashioned philanthropists, and it was easy to understand exactly what compensation these gentlemen obtained in the exercise of their benevolent faculties. They could stand at one end of a great hall surveying long tables crowded with hungry newsboys and derive immense satisfaction from seeing the food disappear and the boys fill up. It caused unquestionably a pleasant sensation to stand there and reflect that these boys, hungry all the year, would be still hungrier today-- if had not...
