Brand New Book. Excerpt from A Sermon: Delivered at the Interment of Col. Thomas Waterman, Who Died Suddenly, at Lebanon, N. H., February 20, 1838;;; Aged 71 Years For man also knoweth not his time; as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in a snare, so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them. Boast not thyself of to-morrow, for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth. Go to now ye that say, to-day, or to-morrow, we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy, and sell and get gain, whereas ye know not not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even as a va pour that appeareth for a little while, and then vanish eth away. For ye ought to say if the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that To these we subjoin the solemn caution of the text: W atch therefore, for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Many declarations of like import mightbe cited to prove that, after the fall, God intended that man should be made sensible that his breath was in his nostrils, and that it might be taken away any moment when the Giver of life pleased.
