LEGION OF ONE: SECRETS OF THE HEART

Createspace. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 290 pages. Legion of One (Secrets of the Heart) is book one of the Legion series. This book introduces the main characters and describes where they are in history. The next book Legion of One (Leader of the Land) is about the reluctant young warrior, Johnel and his struggle to regain independence for his people. Johnel Anderson was born with a great burden on his shoulders. At an early age he witnessed things that some never experience their entire lives. Later he is catapulted into a life that he wouldnt have chosen for himself. He was Gods choice to be among the great men in history. He was chosen to face many dangers but with the help of a Protector and a beautiful girl. His father Jack Anderson and mother Jan are spies who became part of a spiritual group called The Network when they learned that the United States was under attack and being set up for a great fall. His father and mother have been career spies for the US government and with a family of spies the potential of trouble knocking at your door is always present. This adventure in life takes Johnel to Europe facing death at every turn only to be sent back home during parlous times. This is a story of International intrigue, recovery, and revelation. It is a story of a family torn apart by a group who call themselves the Euro Ten whos intentions are to overthrow America and start a One World Government. Johnel and his family are in recovery and fight against these characters. The book is fictional but full of God, program, hope and love. This is the introduction book and the next is called Legion of One (Leader...
