Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from New South Wales Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind: Fifty-Sixth Annual Report for the Year Ended September 30th, 1917 The aim of the teacher of the deaf in developing a knowledge of language in his pupils is to follow, as nearly as possible, the manner in Which the little hearing child acquires his knowledge in the natural way. All our methods and systems are based on the laws governing the acquisition of language by normal children. There are two main methods of imparting instruction to deaf children - the oral method and the silent method. In the former, Speech and speech-reading are employed, and in the latter the Manual Alphabet; Writing being common to both. The choice of method for individual children is decided from considerations of age, condition, and capability.
