Sweeney in Effable contains five books focused on decades of exploits and artwork perpetrated by one character, Sweeney O Sweeney. This contemporary protagonist is based on the ancient Irish legend from Trevor Joyce s translation, Sweeny Peregrine, with a nod to Seamus Heaney s Sweeney Astray. Dave Robinson s Sweeney O Sweeney lives in the late-20th and early-21st centuries, traveling the first and third worlds while seeking remote reefs to surf. All the while, Sweeney gathers material for his poems and prose--mailing off these missives to friends back in America. This former hometown legend, an adept athlete and brawler in his younger days, was born and raised in the blue collar, coastal city of Seawell, Massachusetts. It s a raw place filled with condemned mills, a dying fishing industry and too many shared memories to count. First published by Loom Press in 2007, Book 1--Sweeney on-the-Fringe--is included here and features Sweeney s fellow Seawellians grumbling and opining about what has become of their native son. Is he dead, insane, merely lost,...
