Excerpt: . he lived so long ago, and never knew anything about you and me. How much more we should love the Lord Jesus, who cares for each one of us, and gave his own life that He might save us. When Mr. Fawcett glanced round at the gentle loving looks which the children s faces wore as they listened to the story of Joseph, he could not help asking God to write in their memories this lesson of his holy word, that such quarrels as the one he had quieted when he came in, might never disgrace the school again. was not a pleasant way by which Jamie Carter and his sister went to school; the narrow streets which led from L-----Court to St. Mary s School passed some of the busiest and dirtiest thoroughfares in London, and yet, as Jamie said to his sister,...
