

My Love for the Children of Haiti

By Estelle Marcellus-Dubuisson

Dorrance Publishing Co. Paperback. Condition: New. 190 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. Until her retirement, Estelle Marcellus-Dubuisson worked for twenty-two years at the Bronx VA Medical Center as a Medical Technologist licensed by the NYC Health Department. During a visit to her hometown of Haiti, she was determined to do whatever she could to help the children who were living in poverty. She witnessed women dying during childbirth for lack of proper medical care. She saw children starving from malnutrition. She knew she had to find a way to make things better. My Love for the Children of Haiti shares Ms. Marcellus-Dubuisson's goal to collect a dollar from each of her coworkers to send home to Haiti. Although she was the sole supporter of three children, she managed to budget her salary without depriving them of the basics and send whatever she could to Haiti. About the Author Estelle Marcellus-Dubuisson is a member of the International Society for Clinical Laboratory Technologist and a member of the New York State Blood Bank Association, both of which were related to her job as Medical Lab Technologist at the Bronx VA Hospital. Among many other awards she was awarded: Personality of the...
