Daniel vii. 9 14 BEFORE Bel-shaz-zar king of Babylon died, Daniel had a dream, or vision, and God showed him many things which must come to pass before the end of the world. Perhaps you may live to see them. He saw many beasts, which in the bible sometimes mean the evil in the world; he saw earthly thrones cast down, and I another throne set up, on which sat God, clothed in right-eous-ness, that is, all that is pure and good. His throne was like the flame--this means that he will try every ones doings carefully, and nothing will stand but the good things done for Jesus. God will burn every wicked work, as Wood and hay are burned, but you know some things will not burn, gold, silver, precious stones these are the things we do for Jesus; be...
