THE MIAMI FILES

TotalRecall Publications. Paperback. Condition: New. 350 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. The Miami Files Jack Armstrong, an up and coming young businessman in Atlanta, has paid his dues at Marlowe Plumbing and Supply. He finally gets the well deserved promotion he has sought after years of fourteen hour days and thankless nights. A misdirected shipment of supplies reveals billions of dollars worth of cocaine which could devastate the company and Jack's good name. Doing what he thinks is the right thing by contacting the FBI backfires and places him squarely in the crosshairs of the FBI Agent investigating and the mob who wants their cocaine returned. Jack races against the clock trying to evade the FBI and the mob all while trying to prove his innocence. Trekking through the southeast, he finds information which could implicate the FBI Agent chasing him and who may have more at stake than just apprehending Jack. Jack lands in Miami where he finds the information he needs to clear his name, but it may be too little and too late to save him from either side. About the Author Terry Moran made a career in law enforcement for 28 years before retiring from Federal service in 2008. Five years were spent working undercover narcotics which gives him a unique insight in some of the stories he builds his books around. He also worked various crimes like bank robberies, kidnappings and financial fraud. After retiring he works closely with people needing high level security clearances. Terry has been married to Margaret since 1981. They have three sons, Ryan, Mitchell and Taylor. Terry and Margaret make their home in Knoxville, Tennessee. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
