By a Layman. Boston. Wells and Lilly. 1828. There are several circumstances which have attended the writing and publishing of this pamphlet, of a character highly gratifying and encouraging to the friends of evangelical religion in Boston and throughout the country. The establishment of Churches on the plan so warmly opposed by the author, was adopted by the Orthodox Congregationalists in Boston in 1809. In that year the Park Street Church in this city was formed, its meeting-house erected, and the fee of the land on which it stands was conveyed to several individuals in trust for the church, with provisions in reference to the settlement of pastors and the rights of pew-holders, in all respects similar to those of the Hanover Street Church, to which the writer of this pamphlet particularly refers. In 1822 the Union Church, occupying...
