GROWING UP IN THE D: MY GRANDFATHER, MY MOTHER, AND ME

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A breathtaking story about the strength and longevity of love. The back in time imagery says we are taking a trip with an historical angle and describes the joys of growing up in Detroit during the 1950s and 1960s, with its wonder and excitement, as seen through the eyes of an awe-struck child. In this personal memoir, Cynthia vividly describes how she faced the immense challenges of her youth, including a parent with mental illness, the strength and heroism that came from her grandfather and the many ways this impacted her life. Alan Deneau, National Award Winning Photojournalist, captures the era through historic and beautiful photographs. During Alan s early career at The Detroit News, Alan covered the story on Martin Luther King Jr. and the Civil Rights Freedom parade down Woodward Avenue on June 23, 1963. Alan also completed the Fourth Seacoast, the most comprehensive pictorial report ever compiled on the St. Lawrence Seaway-Great Lakes system for Detroit commercial TV. Alan came to WWJ-TV in 1964 and won at least one award each year for his work as a newsreel cameraman. Alan exhibited both versatility and virtuosity in covering the 1969 antiwar demonstrations in Detroit. In addition, Alan covered the John Norman Collins pretrial hearing in Ann Arbor. In 1971, Alan joined WXYZ-Channel 7 News. He was the type of cameraman often called upon to go after the tough assignments and often the documentary reports required weeks of work. Deeply grateful for her grandfather and his determination to meet the challenges he faced on a daily basis, he was a reassuring presence everyday and the author could count on his unflinching love as his...
