Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Juvenile Instructor, Vol. 47: Organ of the Deseret Sunday School Union; January, 1912 Light, published by millions of copies and translated into many languages, found its way into hundreds of thousands of homes in the British Isles, and continental countries, and has been the means of bringing many souls into the Church. While in England he was appointed by Governor John C. Cutler a Delegate to the Peace Congress, which was held in London. He attended each session of the congress, and wrote reports of the proceedings for the Deseret News and Millennial Star. After presiding over the European mission for nearly three years and eight months, he was honorably released and returned home June 21, 1910, covering the distance between Liverpool and Salt Lake City in the short period of nine days. Since his return his entire time has been devoted to Church work. His exaltation to his present position is a testimonial of appreciation of his life's work, and to the high esteem in which he is held by President Joseph F. Smith and associates. The life of President Charles W. Penrose is an inspiration to the youth of Zion. May he live many years to bless the Church with his wise counsel, to proclaim the gospel in the congregations of the Saints, and to be, as he has always been, a kind and sympathetic friend to all who appeal to him in time of need.
