Excerpt from Third Annual Report, 1941 The San Francisco Housing Authority begins its fourth year of operation on April 18, 1941. During the past year it has made substantial gains in its program to provide low rent housing for those San Francisco Citizens who are now living in sub/standard dwellings. Since our last report, there has been no change in the basic laws under which the United States Housing Authority and the San Francisco Housing Authority were created. During the annual period the San Francisco Housing Authority has completed and placed in Operation Holly Courts, a project containing 118 units, and also Opened for partial tenancy two larger projects - Sunnysdale and Potrero Terrace. The completed sections of these two projects are now occupied by approximately 144 families. When these two are brought to final completion, during the current year, they will jointly, with Holly Courts, house a total of 9 families - removed from inadequate, insanitary dwellings.
