Her story begins by receiving visions from what she claims are the Virgin Mary. The author finds her prayers answered, which leads her to a very spiritual place called Medjugorje, and finds herself in the middle of the Bosnian War of 1994 and the aftermath of the Bosnian War of 1991. When she returns to Medjugorje in 1996, she finds herself in a war zone. And it was here when she discovered her Roman Catholic journey only became more spiritual as she continued to pray to the Virgin Mother. Like many other visionaries, the author has the ability to see auras and receives premonitions of the future. She has resolved by herself murder cases by looking at the auras that surround deceased individuals pictures.
