I.K. International Publishing House Pvt. Ltd., 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 18cm x 24cm. A dynamic financial system helps in the development of a country. Indian Financial System has become dynamic in the last two decades through continuous transformation. The main objectives of this transformational change are to be compatible with the ever-changing economy and be competent with other nation's financial systems. The change is apparent by the range of financial institutions serving the customers and businesses; instruments and services that are available to cater to the needs of the economy and the financial markets, which form a bond between the buyers and sellers. This book is intended to furnish complete information about the main features of Indian Financial System, various financial markets, services and instruments. This book caters to the need of under-graduate and postgraduate courses in Commerce and Management. The book is organized in five modules and each one provides a broad view of various aspects of Indian Financial System. The book focusses mainly on the aspects relating to organizations, institutions and regulatory bodies. Broadly the book deals with: ò Classification of the system and types of financial markets, ò Financial institutions and their working, ò Operations of RBI and SEBI, ò Functioning of various financial services like hire purchase system, lease financing, forfeiting, factoring, discounting, credit rating and so on, ò Recent innovations and technology in the banking sector.
