

The Time Divide: Work, Family, and Gender Inequality (Paperback)

By Jerry A. Jacobs, Kathleen Gerson

HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In a panoramic study that draws on diverse sources, Jerry Jacobs and Kathleen Gerson explain why and how time pressures have emerged and what we can do to alleviate them. In contrast to the conventional wisdom that all Americans are overworked, they show that time itself has become a form of social inequality that is dividing Americans in new ways - between the overworked and the underemployed, women and men, parents and non-parents. They piece together a compelling story of the increasing mismatch between our economic system and the needs of American families, sorting out important trends such as the rise of demanding jobs and the emergence of new pressures on dual- earner families and single parents.
