Excerpt: .these verses three illustrations of the preservation of identity under change of form: --(1) seeds growing into flowers and fruit; (2) flesh in the variety of men, beasts, fishes, and birds; (3) heavenly and earthly bodies in infinite variety of form and of glory. P7, 3s) (jod giveth it a body.--Here it is implied that, though the seed grows up, as we say, in the ordinary course of Nature, it is God who not only has originally established but continually sustains that order. Each seed rises with its own body; a corn seed grows up into corn, an acorn into an oak. All through this passage the word body is used in a general sense for organism, so as to keep strictly and vividly before the reader the ultimate truth to illustrate which these analogies are introduced. The points of analogy between the sowing and...
