Pelican Publishing Co, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Nine-year-old Teddy Caldwell of Oil Camp, Louisiana, is having a bad day. He just hit a solid line drive right into his neighbor s window! Not just any neighborthe window belongs to the mysterious Mr. Weems. When the old man suddenly appears with the ball in hand, a surprising friendship begins. The two are united by baseball, and through it Teddy learns about the Great Depression, the Negro League, and what it meant to be black during that time. The tale features Bopeep Shines, who leaves a promising career to go barnstorming across the county with Uncle Drew at his side. Through the course of the summer, Teddy begins to discover his own place in the world while developing a moral code that will sustain him.
