The Administrative Law Revolution: Learning to Litigate in a Forgiving Environment (Paperback)

By Richard L Hermann

H Watson LLC, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Build a legal career in one of the hottest 21st century employment arenas! In his 21st Century Legal Career Series, Richard L. Hermann researches, evaluates, and predicts where the employment opportunities are and will be for law graduates. Volume 7, The Administrative Law Revolution: Learning to Litigate in a Forgiving Environment, focuses one of the hottest law practice areas going, which is heating up even more, due to two demographic phenomena hitting the U.S. at the same time: (1) Age. 78 million Baby Boomers are aging up at a rate of 10,000 per day. Older people wind up in administrative litigation forums to a far greater extent than their younger counterparts. (2) Veterans. The U.S. now has 26 million veterans. More than 8 million Vietnam Era veterans are now in their 60s and 70s and are applying for disability benefits in large numbers. More than 50 percent of the 2.6 million Iraq and Afghanistan War veterans are filing disability claims with the Department of Veterans Affairs Board of Veterans Appeals (BVA). That is a lot of potential new clients coming on scene...
