Today, more than ever before, certain slogans, catch phrases, etc. are being bantered about so loosely that people accept them easily without really contemplating what each means. The catch phrase, DO YOUR OWN THING is based upon an assumption that it s perfectly right to do so, as long as doing your own thing doesn t hurt others. Today this is widely accepted. However in the act of doing your own thing, a question must be answered. Does doing your own thing hurt yourself? If the answer is yes, then clearly this would be an example of why society is in chaos and in disarray. This example illustrates the mentality that has resulted when a society is lost, doesn t have meaningful goals and is wandering from one quick fix saying to another. The divorce rate is high; child abuse, alcoholism, and drug addiction continue to plague the country. The most alarming fact is that the family unit has disintegrated into a web of television personalities, with unrealistic desires, and falsely promulgated...
